On the occasion of Children's Day, a presentation of projects by the New Technology Division took place in Lublin from 27.05 to 29.05. The most popular among visitors was the latest educational game "Aviators – War in the Skies". In addition, the event was packed with various workshops, presentations, city games and talks.

Children's Day in Lublin. An event organised by the Institute of National Remembrance for young people

Learning, fun, workshops, an immersive journey through Polish history and an opportunity to build memories. A Children's Day event was organised in Lublin and, thanks to the mobile box with immersive historical education, all visitors had the opportunity to learn about the educational projects of the IPN's New Technology Division. The most popular among visitors was the latest educational game "Aviators – War in the Skies". It tells the story of Polish pilots who took part in aerial combat during World War II. It has been developed in two versions – for computers and VR (virtual reality) devices. Since its international launch on 24 January in London, the game has already been downloaded more than 320,000 times from the Steam platform, and its popularity is not waning. "Aviators", like all other projects from the New Technology Division, is made available as a free download from the Steam platform. Download "Aviators" for free
