The 32nd Economic Forum in Karpacz is already over

The 32nd Economic Forum was held in Karpacz between 5 and 7 September 2023. The event brought together outstanding economists, scientists and representatives of public institutions and private companies, who arrived to discuss important issues connected with economics, innovation and education. The theme of this year's Forum was "New Values for the Old Continent – Europe on the Threshold of Change". The conference resulted in valuable conclusions and provided a platform for inspiring discussions, with representatives of the Institute of National Remembrance making a significant contribution to these debates. The speakers at this year's Economic Forum included Karol Nawrocki, PhD, President of the Institute of National Remembrance, Professor Jan Draus, Board Member of the Institute of National Remembrance, Adam Pleskaczyński, PhD, Head of the National Education Division at the Institute of National Remembrance, Magdalena Hajduk, Head of the New Technology Division, Łukasz Witek, Head of the Encounters with History Division at the Institute of National Remembrance, Krystian Iwanow, Head of the Cultural Events Division at the Institute of National Remembrance and Dariusz Iwaneczko, Head of the Branch Office of the Institute of National Remembrance in Rzeszów.
