

One of the greatest successes of the insurgents was the capture of the KL Warschau concentration camp, which was transformed into a branch of the Majdanek concentration camp, popularly known as:

- a) Królikarnia
- b) Psiarnia
- c) Pawiak
- d) Gęsiówka

“They have vises to fight tigers” - a tiger is a tank, and a vis is:

- a) a semi-automatic pistol
- b) a makeshift anti-tank gun
- c) a semi-automatic rifle
- d) an amateur mountable machine gun

Kedyw is:

- a) KDW - War Activities Committee
- b) the Diversion Headquarters of the Home Army
- c) the alias of General Leopold Okulicki
- d) a German rifle

Among the most unsuccessful actions during the Uprising was the attempted capture of:

- a) Gdański Station
- b) the PAST building
- c) the General Post Office
- d) the Polish Security Printing Works

The order to start the Uprising was given on:

- a) 25 July
- b) 29 July
- c) 31 July
- d) 1 August

The main commander of the insurgent forces was Colonel Antoni Chruściel alias...

- a) Monter
- b) Moździerz
- c) Zośka
- d) Bór

At a later stage of the fighting, the insurgents did not achieve significant successes: on 20 August, they captured:

- a) Belweder
- b) Saski Palace
- c) Prudential
- b) PAST

The treaty on the cessation of hostilities ending the Warsaw Uprising is dated:

- a) 30 September
- b) 1 October
- c) 2 October 2
- d) the insurgents did not lay down their arms and were defeated

How did the Soviets explain their lack of aid to Warsaw?

- a) that they did not know there was an uprising in Warsaw
- b) resentment against the Home Army
- c) high water level in the Vistula River
- d) the heavy losses inflicted by the Germans near Warsaw

Who made up the majority of the "Zośka" Battalion?

- a) Jews freed from Gęsiówka
- b) the Silent Unseen
- c) foreigners who fought voluntarily in the uprising
- d) scouts of the Grey Ranks

What happened to the civilian population of Warsaw after the fall of the uprising?

- a) people were driven out of the city
- b) they returned to everyday life
- c) they were conscripted into the army
- d) they were sent to prisoner of war camps

Which district of Warsaw did the insurgents fail to occupy, even temporarily?

- a) Żoliborz
- b) Mokotów
- c) Praga
- d) Wola

Who denied the Americans permission to use Soviet airfields?

- a) Ribbentrop
- b) Molotov
- c) Stalin
- d) Mikołajczyk

The Home Army command was subordinate to:

- a) no one
- b) the Commander-in-Chief and the Polish Government in Exile
- c) PKWN - the Polish Committee of National Liberation
- d) the command of the British troops

Which of the following was not part of the Treaty on the Cessation of Hostilities:

- a) the abandonment by the Germans of the repression of the civilian population
- b) recognizing members of the Home Army as soldiers and treating them as prisoners of war in accordance with the law of war
- c) enabling residents to safely evacuate
- d) withdrawal of German troops from the area of Warsaw

What was not included in the cargoes dropped by the Allies from planes?

- a) ammunition
- b) weapons
- c) uniforms
- d) medicine

What did the PW “anchor” symbol mean?

- a) Fighting Poland (Polska Walcząca)
- b) Rising Warsaw
- c) Poland Will Win
- d) Poland of Freedom

The Warsaw skyscraper, visible in the game’s menu, is a symbol of pre-war Warsaw and its tallest building at the time. It is:

- a) the Palace of Culture and Science
- b) PAST
- c) Prudential
- d) Varso Tower

How many people lived in Warsaw at the time of the uprising?

- a) about 950 thousand
- b) about 1.5 million
- c) about 550 thousand
- d) about 1.25 million

The uprising in Warsaw was part of a nationwide campaign codenamed:

- a) Barabossa
- b) Bagration
- c) Wisła
- d) Burza (Tempest)